

Hindi Debate:

Procedure:

- Selecting a Topic: For the Hindi debate, decide on an interesting and pertinent subject. It could deal with a contemporary problem, a social issue, or a subject related to customs and culture.
 - Assemble participants into teams, with each team representing a distinct perspective on the topic that has been chosen. Make sure all viewpoints are fairly represented.
 - Encourage participants to conduct in-depth research on the perspective they have been assigned. To strengthen their claims, this involves gathering data, figures, and instances.
- Opening Remarks: Let each team make an easy-to-understand bucement to start the argument. Clearly express your opinion and list the primary principles you plan to cover.

Description:

Welcome to our debating competition in Hindi, where we shall examine the persuasive ability of words spoken in our native tongue. This forum is an appreciation to intelligent conversation and language expression. Let's embark on this linguistic journey, celebrating the richness of our Hindi language. May this debate contribute to our shared understanding and appreciation of effective communication in Hindi.

Code of Conduct:

- Language Application:
 - We shall use Hindi throughout the entire argument to demonstrate our fluency in the language of our nation and culture.
- Choice of Topic:
 - Debaters will select subjects that cover a wide range of problems, enabling a thorough examination of concepts in Hindi.
- Time Allocated:
 - Each participant will have [X minutes] to discuss their points of view and arguments in Hindi.
- Evaluation Standards:
 - Content: Reasoning in Hindi with depth, correctness, and logical flow.
 - Presentation: Hindi language articulation, delivery, and expression.
- Guidelines: Civil Conversation:

- Throughout the discussion, all participants must act politely and respectfully, avoiding making personal attacks.
- Effective Time Management:
 - Complete respect for the time allocated is required. Penalties could be imposed for exceeding the deadline.
- Original Text:

It is totally forbidden to plagiarise. Presenting original ideas is mandatory, and accurate citations are needed.

Etiquette for the Audience:

During speeches, it is expected of the audience to pay close attention. At the conclusion of each participant's presentation, applause is welcomed.
- Awards:
 - Top Debater: Given to the candidate who best exhibits outstanding arguing abilities, skillfully fusing Hindi delivery with the subject.