Charade Chronicles -

Experience a thrilling literary journey across two captivating rounds filled with excitement and creativity. In the initial Dumb Charades round, teams showcase acting skills, aiming for the top eight spots. The intensity rises in Mirror Round, adds a unique twist, requiring coordinated actions for the top 3 teams to claim prestigious prizes.

Key Guidelines:
1. Form a team of three members for participation.
2. The competition comprises two rounds, and following each round, the team with the fewest points will face elimination.
3. Teams will be supervised by a moderator.
4. The moderator ensures participants adhere to the rules and has the authority to deduct points for misconduct.
5. A jury panel evaluates performances and manages team scores. Teams with lower scores, as determined by the jury, will be eliminated from the competition.
6. The two rounds are:
  I. Dumb Charades
  II. Mirror Round

Dumb Charades (ROUND-I):
1. A team member steps forward to draw a topic from the selection.
2. The individual acting out the topic must refrain from speaking or gesturing, challenging the other two members to guess the word.
3. Only one attempt is permitted to convey the selected word.
4. Teams have one minute to complete the task, signalled by a concluding bell.
5. Points are earned for each accurately guessed word.
6. The top eight teams with the highest scores progress to the next round.

Mirror Round (Round II):
1. A team member assumes the role of the primary actor and selects a topic.
2. This primary actor then conveys the topic to a secondary actor, positioned face-to-face with the third and final team member.
3. The secondary actor mimics the motions of the primary actor, serving as a mirror image.
4. The third team member, placed between the two actors, acts as the guesser for the final answer.
5. Communication is solely through actions.
6. The allotted time for this task is 3 minutes.
7. The top 3 teams will be rewarded with prizes.
